Depending on the date of your withdrawal, Student Finance may not pay your full tuition fee liability, so a portion of your fee may be re-invoiced to you to pay back directly to the University.

Standard undergraduate courses, excluding all nursing, midwifery and trimester courses.

Tuition fee liability 0%

If you leave within the first three weeks of the start of semester one (29 January 2018 up to and including 18 February 2018) no fees are due. Neither you, nor Student Finance will be charged.

No tuition fees due

Tuition fee liability 50%

If you withdraw after week three (19 February 2018 up to and including 9 April 2018) your tuition fee liability with the University will be 50% of your fees (£4,625). Student Finance will only pay £2,312.50 and you will therefore be invoiced for the portion they will not pay – £2,312.50.

Please also be aware that, depending on the date of your withdrawal, this may also affect your maintenance payments from Student Finance. The above illustrations are based on tuition fees of £9,250 for a September starter. Please note that if you have been awarded a fee waiver or fee reduction then this will impact your tuition fee liability.
